

Girl Guides

Top award for Talitha, 19

A 19-year-old Girl Guide leader has been presented with the Queen's Guide Award becoming the first person in the area to receive the accolade in 20 years.

Talitha Trynka-Watson was presented with the award at East Yorkshire's Annual Review at Burnby Hall Gardens by Jennifer Solomon, a county vice-president and a former County Commissioner.

To achieve the award

Talitha, nick named Tilly, took on a range of long term challenges including completing Guiding's Adult Leadership Qualification.

She also became both a Rainbow and Guide Leader and passed her Leaders Camping Qualification to enable her to take young girl guides away on residential trips.

Tilly, who went to Woldgate College has just finished her second year at medical school.

Tilly with Jennifer Solomon.